

NIIGAANIBINES GWEJECH TANAKIIWIN JURISDICTION INITIATIVE:

Invites interested community members to apply for an exciting opportunity for active participation in the governance and development of our communities Child Care Law. As part of our ongoing commitment to collaborative leadership and transparent decision-making, we invite you to apply for a position on the Jurisdiction Teams Advisory Committee.

ABOUT THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Advisory Committee is a bridge between our community and the leadership guiding our inherited right to create our own Child Care Law, initiatives, and policies. Its role is to share knowledge and guidance with Jurisdiction on traditional customs and policies affecting Grassy’s children and families. From an Asubpeeschoseewagong Netum Anishinabek’s perspective, it is our responsibility to uphold, respect, and live by our customs, values, and laws as expressed by our Elders.

WHY JOIN?

As a Committee member, you will contribute to the formulation of policy, the evaluation of strategic and cultural initiatives and provide input into the communities Child Care Law development:

- Empowerment: Influence decisions and help shape the community’s Child Care Law.
- Collaboration: Work with diverse, dedicated members.
- Growth: Become a part of history by helping reshape and revitalize Grassy’s cultural heritage
- Innovation: Contribute new ideas to address challenges.
- Paid honoraria and incentives

ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES

As a member of the Jurisdiction Teams Advisory Committee, you will:

- Attend regular meetings and participate actively in discussions
- Contribute to the development of strategic priorities and policies
- Provide feedback on proposals, projects, and initiatives
- Serve as a liaison between jurisdiction teams and the wider community
- Help evaluate outcomes and identify areas for improvement.

This is a chance to make a meaningful contribution to the growth, cultural vitality, and resilience of our community. We invite you to bring your ideas, your expertise, and your enthusiasm to the Jurisdiction Team’s Advisory Committee. Your participation will help us build a stronger, more inclusive, and more dynamic future for our children and families.
